Gut Reset with Sun Yoon: how it works

Sun Yoon

I'm Sun Yoon. AI character. I cook, I read the studies, and I don't lie to you. Twelve weeks of fiber, fermented foods and protein at every meal, climbed slowly, with 26 new recipes and weekly grocery lists.

A little more, slowly. That's the whole method.

Who it's for. Adults 60+ who want to eat more fiber and protein and feel more regular, cooking Korean and Chinese home food at home. Not a treatment for any bowel condition.

Ask your doctor first if: Kidney disease (protein and potassium limits), a past bowel blockage, Crohn's disease or a narrowed bowel, trouble swallowing, a low-fiber diet ordered by your doctor, or warfarin (keep greens steady). Not for the ladder, for your doctor, today: blood in the stool, black stool, unexplained weight loss, severe belly pain, or a change in bowel habits lasting more than a few weeks.

What you need. A kitchen, a rice cooker or pot, a steamer basket, a kitchen scale (helpful), jars for banchan.

Every day: Stop if you feel chest pain or pressure, dizziness, unusual shortness of breath, or sharp pain. Chest pain, face drooping, arm weakness or trouble speaking? Call 911 now. Pain rule (E41): Mild discomfort up to 3 out of 10 is okay if it settles by tomorrow. Sharper, or worse the next day: back off and ask your doctor or physical therapist.

The 12-week plan

Every week: your daily Strong Years session as usual, a Sunday kitchen lesson with Sun, three featured recipes (plus one optional), one habit, and a grocery list for two.

Week	Theme	Rung	Featured recipes
1	Count what you eat now	Baseline	Overnight oats with soy milk, kiwi and flax, Stir-fried tofu with broccoli and garlic, Napa cabbage, beef and tofu soybean soup
2	Two kiwis a day	Rung 1: 2 kiwis	Mixed-grain rice with black beans, Soybean-paste stew with tofu and shrimp, Steamed sweet potato and egg plate

Week	Theme	Rung	Featured recipes
3	Whole grains	Rung 2: brown or mixed-grain rice	Chicken, barley and mushroom soup, Korean radish and beef soup, Persimmon, walnut and yogurt cup
4 (easy + checkpoint)	Easy week + checkpoint	Hold	Egg and chive stir-fry with kimchi, Edamame, corn and cucumber salad with tofu, Tomato, tofu and egg soup with peas
5	Beans and soy	Rung 3: 1/2 cup edamame	Soy-braised black soybeans, Mung bean pancakes with kimchi and pork, Cold soy- milk noodle soup
6	Fermented foods, small amounts	Hold rungs 1- 3	Kimchi pancake with shrimp, Soybean sprout soup with tofu and egg, Kimchi stew with pork and tofu
7	Prunes and flax	Rung 4: prunes + flax	Sweet potato porridge with walnuts, Hand-torn cabbage with pork, Steamed Asian pear with jujube and ginger

Week	Theme	Rung	Featured recipes
8 (easy + checkpoint)	Easy week + checkpoint	Hold	Gochujang chicken with sweet potato and broccoli, Two banchan: sesame spinach and soybean sprouts, Tomato, tofu and egg soup with peas
9	A vegetable at every meal	Rungs 5–6: oats + vegetables	Garlic eggplant with ground turkey, Beef and vegetable glass noodles, lighter, Cucumber and seaweed salad
10	Protein at every meal	Hold	Cod braised with tomato and ginger, Edamame, corn and cucumber salad with tofu, Turkey bibimbap bowl
11	Walk after meals, cook for one	Hold	Egg and chive stir-fry with kimchi, Steamed sweet potato and egg plate, Overnight oats with soy milk, kiwi and flax
12 (easy + checkpoint)	Your keep list + final checkpoint	Keep what works	Soybean-paste stew with tofu and shrimp, Chicken, barley and mushroom soup, Persimmon, walnut and yogurt cup

Red flags: blood in the stool or black stool, vomiting blood, unexplained weight loss, severe belly pain, fever with belly pain, or a change in bowel habits lasting more than a few weeks: no soup for that. Call your doctor. Today. Chest pain, face drooping, arm weakness or trouble speaking? Call 911 now.

Your checkpoints

Start, then the end of weeks 4, 8 and 12. Same chair, same shoes, same time of day. These are fitness checks from published research, not medical tests.

Checkpoint	How	Start	Week 4	Week 8	Week 12
Fiber grams (E24)	Average of 3 days, using the recipe numbers and the fiber list. Goal zone: 25–29 g/day
Protein breakfasts (E28)	Days last week with 25 g+ protein at breakfast (0–7)
After-meal walks (E23)	Days last week with a walk after your biggest meal (0–7)
Regularity (self-rating)	Bowel movements per week and how easy (easy / some effort / hard). A self-check, not a diagnosis
Fermented food servings (E26)	Small servings last week

Week 1: Count what you eat now

Sun Yoon

Before you change anything, count. Most people have no idea how much fiber they eat. Grams, not vibes.

This week's habit: Write down one normal day of food and add up the fiber with the recipe numbers. No changes yet. Walk 5 minutes after your biggest meal.

Fiber ladder: Baseline.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Overnight oats with soy milk, kiwi and flax	29 g	9.3 g	420
Stir-fried tofu with broccoli and garlic	28 g	8.2 g	430
Napa cabbage, beef and tofu soybean soup	25 g	3.8 g	300
Morning yogurt bowl with kiwi and walnuts (optional)	28 g	7.4 g	380

Week 2: Two kiwis a day

Sun Yoon

In a 4-week study of 75 people with chronic constipation, 2 kiwis a day worked about as well as prunes or psyllium, with the fewest side effects.

This week's habit: Two green kiwis every day (rung 1). Drink a glass of water with them.

Fiber ladder: Rung 1: 2 kiwis.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Mixed-grain rice with black beans	5 g	4.5 g	160
Soybean-paste stew with tofu and shrimp	27 g	5.4 g	330

Week 3: Whole grains

Sun Yoon

Barley, brown rice, beans in the rice cooker. Same bowl, more fiber.

This week's habit: Swap one bowl of white rice for mixed-grain or brown rice every day (rung 2).

Fiber ladder: Rung 2: brown or mixed-grain rice.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Chicken, barley and mushroom soup	34 g	5.8 g	320
Korean radish and beef soup	23 g	3.8 g	290
Persimmon, walnut and yogurt cup	14 g	6.5 g	230

☐ Pearled barley (dry): 0.5 cups dry (makes about 1 cups cooked)

Pantry

☐ Low-sodium chicken broth: 2 cartons (32 oz)

☐ Walnuts: 1 oz

Check you have: low-sodium soy sauce, toasted sesame oil, canola oil, toasted sesame seeds, rice or white vinegar, honey, sugar, salt, cornstarch, gochujang, miso or doenjang, Korean chili flakes or red pepper flakes, tahini, reduced-fat mayonnaise, chunjang (black bean paste), white or black pepper, oyster sauce.

Week 4: Easy week + checkpoint

Sun Yoon

An easy week is part of the plan. Your gut adjusts. You count again.

This week's habit: Keep rungs 1-2. No new rung. Do the 3-day checkpoint.

Fiber ladder: Hold.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Egg and chive stir-fry with kimchi	30 g	7.6 g	480
Edamame, corn and cucumber salad with tofu	27 g	9.4 g	330
Tomato, tofu and egg soup with peas	22 g	4.1 g	250
Egg-drop soup with tofu, spinach and peas (optional)	31 g	3.3 g	320

Shopping list, week 4

Pantry

☐ Kimchi: 1 jar (16 oz)

☐ Low-sodium chicken broth: 1
carton (32 oz)

Week 5: Beans and soy

Sun Yoon

Soybeans give you protein and fiber in one spoon. Go slowly: beans are famous for a reason.

This week's habit: Half a cup of edamame or soybeans a day (rung 3).

Fiber ladder: Rung 3: 1/2 cup edamame.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Soy-braised black soybeans	11 g	3.6 g	120
Mung bean pancakes with kimchi and pork	22 g	9.4 g	320
Cold soy-milk noodle soup	34 g	9.0 g	520
Warm edamame with sesame and chili (optional)	14 g	6.1 g	150

Shopping list, week 5

Produce

- ☐ Cucumbers: 1 medium
- ☐ Green kiwis: 28
- ☐ Scallions: 1 bunch
- ☐ Soybean sprouts: 1 bag (12 oz)

Meat & fish

- ☐ Pork loin: 0.25 lb

Check you have: low-sodium soy sauce, toasted sesame oil, canola oil, toasted sesame seeds, rice or white vinegar, honey, sugar, salt, cornstarch, gochujang, miso or doenjang, Korean chili flakes or red pepper flakes, tahini, reduced-fat mayonnaise, chunjang (black bean paste), white or black pepper, oyster sauce.

Week 6: Fermented foods, small amounts

Sun Yoon

In a 10-week study of 36 adults, a high-fermented-food diet increased gut-microbe diversity and lowered 19 inflammation-related proteins. Small study. Interesting, not proven. Kimchi is salty: small portions.

This week's habit: One small serving of a fermented food a day: plain yogurt, kefir or a few bites of kimchi.

Fiber ladder: Hold rungs 1–3.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Kimchi pancake with shrimp	20 g	5.5 g	300
Soybean sprout soup with tofu and egg	19 g	1.2 g	180
Kimchi stew with pork and tofu	25 g	4.7 g	320
Two banchan: sesame spinach and soybean sprouts (optional)	10 g	2.7 g	120

Shopping list, week 6

Produce

- ☐ Garlic: 1 head
- ☐ Green kiwis: 28
- ☐ Onions: 1 medium
- ☐ Scallions: 2 bunches
- ☐ Soybean sprouts: 1 bag (12 oz)
- ☐ White mushrooms: 1 pack (8 oz)

- ☐ Brown rice (dry): 0.75 cups dry (makes about 2 cups cooked)
- ☐ Whole-wheat flour: 1 cups

Pantry

- ☐ Kimchi: 1 jar (16 oz)
- ☐ Low-sodium chicken broth: 1 carton (32 oz)

Week 7: Prunes and flax

Sun Yoon

In the Prune Study, postmenopausal women eating about 50 grams of prunes a day kept their hip bone density steady for a year compared with controls. And prunes help regularity (E25).

This week's habit: Five prunes and one tablespoon of ground flaxseed a day (rung 4).

Fiber ladder: Rung 4: prunes + flax.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Sweet potato porridge with walnuts	18 g	4.4 g	380
Hand-torn cabbage with pork	30 g	5.5 g	370
Steamed Asian pear with jujube and ginger	1 g	5.5 g	90
Overnight oats with soy milk, kiwi and flax (optional)	29 g	9.3 g	420

Shopping list, week 7

Produce

- ☐ Asian pear (or Bosc pear): 2 large
- ☐ Fresh ginger: 1 oz
- ☐ Garlic: 1 head
- ☐ Green cabbage: 1 small head

- ☐ Green kiwis: 28

- ☐ Plain nonfat Greek yogurt: 2 tubs (32 oz)
- ☐ Unsweetened soy milk: 1 quart

Frozen

- ☐ Shelled edamame: 4 bags (12 oz)

Bread & grains

- ☐ Brown rice (dry): 0.75 cups dry (makes about 2 cups cooked)
- ☐ Short-grain white rice (dry): 0.5 cups

Pantry

- ☐ Dried jujubes (red dates): 4
- ☐ Ground flaxseed: 4 oz
- ☐ Prunes: 24 oz
- ☐ Walnuts: 1 oz

Check you have: low-sodium soy sauce, toasted sesame oil, canola oil, toasted sesame seeds, rice or white vinegar, honey, sugar, salt, cornstarch, gochujang, miso or doenjang, Korean chili flakes or red pepper flakes, tahini, reduced-fat mayonnaise, chunjang (black bean paste), white or black pepper, oyster sauce.

Week 8: Easy week + checkpoint

Sun Yoon

Halfway. Look at your numbers. Keep what works. Drop what doesn't.

This week's habit: Keep rungs 1–4. No new rung. Do the 3-day checkpoint.

Fiber ladder: Hold.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Gochujang chicken with sweet potato and broccoli	39 g	5.8 g	390
Two banchan: sesame spinach and soybean sprouts	10 g	2.7 g	120

Frozen

- ☐ Peas: 1 bag (16 oz)
- ☐ Shelled edamame: 4 bags (12 oz)

Pantry

- ☐ Ground flaxseed: 4 oz
- ☐ Low-sodium chicken broth: 1 carton (32 oz)
- ☐ Prunes: 24 oz

Week 9: A vegetable at every meal

Sun Yoon

Banchan are how Koreans eat vegetables without noticing. Make two on Sunday.

This week's habit: A vegetable at breakfast, lunch and dinner (rung 6).
Oatmeal breakfast twice this week (rung 5).

Fiber ladder: Rungs 5–6: oats + vegetables.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Garlic eggplant with ground turkey	30 g	7.9 g	490
Beef and vegetable glass noodles, lighter	26 g	4.0 g	400

☐ Prunes: 24 oz

☐ Sweet potato glass noodles (dangmyeon): 4 oz

Week 10: Protein at every meal

Sun Yoon

Adults over 65: 1.0 to 1.2 grams of protein per kilogram a day, spread across meals, unless your doctor sets a different number.

This week's habit: 25 to 30 grams of protein at each meal. Breakfast counts most. (Kidney disease: ask your doctor for your number.)

Fiber ladder: Hold.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Cod braised with tomato and ginger	36 g	6.8 g	370
Edamame, corn and cucumber salad with tofu	27 g	9.4 g	330

- ☐ Ground flaxseed: 4 oz
- ☐ Prunes: 24 oz

Week 11: Walk after meals, cook for one

Sun Yoon

Light walking after meals, even 2 to 5 minutes, lowers the blood-sugar rise after eating compared with sitting.

This week's habit: A 5 to 15 minute walk after your biggest meal every day. Freeze single portions.

Fiber ladder: Hold.

Recipe	Protein	Fiber	Calories
Egg and chive stir-fry with kimchi	30 g	7.6 g	480

Mixed-grain rice with black beans

japgok-bap (Korean) · Serves 8 · 5 minutes hands-on, 10 minutes total

Sun Yoon

White rice every day? Fine when you were twenty. Now mix in barley and beans. More fiber, same rice cooker.

5 g

protein

sodium

Per serving. Calculated from USDA FoodData Central (E52); method and every ingredient value at the back of the book.

You need

- 3 cups cooked brown rice
- 1 1/2 cups cooked pearled barley
- 1 can (15 oz), drained and rinsed low-sodium black beans

Steps

1. Cook brown rice and barley ahead (or buy them cooked and frozen). Rinse the beans in a colander.
2. Mix everything in a big bowl while the grains are warm.
3. Portion 2/3 cup per person. Freeze the rest in flat bags.

Soft-food version: Cook the brown rice and barley with 25% more water, and mash the beans lightly.

Keeps: Fridge 4 days, freezer 3 months. Reheat until steaming (165°F).

Who should skip or ask first: High fiber. Go up slowly and drink water, or you'll feel it (E24).

Soybean-paste stew with tofu and shrimp

doenjang-jjigae (Korean) · Serves 4 · 15 minutes hands-on, 30 minutes total

Sun Yoon

Every Korean house has this on the stove three nights a week. Doenjang is fermented soybean paste. If you can't find it, miso works. Don't tell my mother.

Per serving. Calculated from USDA FoodData Central (E52); method and every ingredient value at the back of the book.

You need

- 1 block (14 oz) firm tofu, in cubes
- 8 oz raw shrimp, peeled
- 2 Tbsp doenjang or miso
- 1 medium zucchini, in half-moons
- 1 medium onion, diced
- 4 oz fresh shiitake mushrooms, sliced
- 1 small russet potato, in small cubes
- 1 garlic clove, minced
- 1 tsp Korean chili flakes (optional)
- 2 scallions, sliced

- 4 cups water
- 2 cups cooked brown rice, to serve

Steps

1. Stir the doenjang into the water in a pot until dissolved. Add the potato, onion and garlic. Boil, then simmer 8 minutes.
2. Add the zucchini and mushrooms. Simmer 5 minutes.
3. Add the tofu and shrimp. Simmer 3 to 4 minutes, until the shrimp are pink and opaque all the way through.
4. Add chili flakes if you like. Top with scallions. Serve with rice.

Soft-food version: Dice everything small and cook the potato until very soft. Chop the shrimp.

Keeps: Fridge 3 days. Reheat until steaming.

Who should skip or ask first: Shellfish allergy: swap in cubed firm tofu, or chicken breast cooked to 165°F.

Two banchan: sesame spinach and soybean sprouts

- 2 garlic cloves, grated
- 1 Tbsp low-sodium soy sauce
- 2 tsp toasted sesame oil
- 2 tsp toasted sesame seeds
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 2 scallions, finely chopped

Steps

1. Bring a pot of water to a boil. Add the soybean sprouts, cover, and cook 6 minutes. Lift out, drain, and cool.
2. In the same water, blanch the spinach 30 seconds. Drain, rinse cold, squeeze dry and chop.
3. Toss the sprouts with half the garlic, sesame oil, sesame seeds, scallions and the salt.
4. Toss the spinach with the rest of the garlic, sesame oil, sesame seeds, scallions and the soy sauce.
5. Serve cold or at room temperature.

- 2 Tbsp low-sodium soy sauce
- 1 Tbsp honey
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 tsp toasted sesame oil
- 1 tsp toasted sesame seeds

Steps

1. Put the beans, soy sauce, honey and water in a small pan.
2. Simmer on low, stirring now and then, 12 to 15 minutes, until the liquid is almost gone and the beans look glossy.
3. Stir in the sesame oil and seeds. Cool. Serve 1/3 cup as a side.

Soft-food version: Simmer 10 minutes longer with extra water and mash lightly.

- 2 scallions, sliced
- 1 large egg
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 2 Tbsp canola oil
- 1 Tbsp low-sodium soy sauce (dip)
- 1 Tbsp rice or white vinegar (dip)

Steps

1. Drain the soaked mung beans. Blend with 1/2 cup water to a thick, slightly gritty batter.
2. Stir in the pork, kimchi, sprouts, scallions, egg and salt.
3. Heat 1/2 Tbsp oil in a nonstick skillet over medium heat. Spoon in 1/2 cup batter and flatten to a 4-inch round.
4. Cook 4 to 5 minutes a side, until deep golden and cooked through (pork reaches 160°F in the center; press to check no pink batter remains).

Per serving. Calculated from USDA FoodData Central (E52); method and every ingredient value at the back of the book.

You need

- 1/2 cup old-fashioned rolled oats
- 1/2 cup unsweetened soy milk
- 3/4 cup plain nonfat Greek yogurt
- 1 Tbsp ground flaxseed
- 1 green kiwi, diced
- 1 Tbsp chopped walnuts

Steps

1. Stir the oats, soy milk, yogurt and flaxseed together in a jar.
2. Cover and refrigerate overnight (at least 6 hours).
3. In the morning, top with kiwi and walnuts.

Soft-food version: Use quick oats; swap the kiwi for a ripe mashed banana or persimmon; grind the walnuts.

Keeps: Up to 2 days in the fridge without the fruit.

Who should skip or ask first: High fiber. Go up slowly and drink water, or you'll feel it (E24). Kiwi allergy (some people with latex allergy react to kiwi): swap a ripe persimmon or pear.

Steamed sweet potato and egg plate

goguma and salted eggs, the Korean train snack · Serves 1 · 5 minutes hands-on, 30 minutes total

Sun Yoon

Korean grandmothers pack this for train trips. Sweet potato, eggs, a little kimchi. Fifteen grams of protein and it travels.

You need

- 1 small sweet potato, steamed or boiled in its skin
- 2 hard-boiled eggs
- 1/4 cup kimchi

Steps

1. Steam or boil the whole sweet potato 25 to 30 minutes, until a knife slides in.
2. Boil the eggs 10 minutes, until the yolks are completely firm; cool and peel.
3. Plate with kimchi. Eat warm or cold.

Soft-food version: Mash the sweet potato and chop the eggs.

Keeps: Cooked sweet potatoes and peeled eggs keep 4 days in the fridge.

Who should skip or ask first: Kimchi is salty. Watching sodium?
Small portions, or rinse it.

Steamed Asian pear with jujube and ginger

baesuk (Korean) · Serves 2 · 10 minutes hands-on, 40 minutes total

Sun Yoon

Korean mothers steam pears when someone has a cough. Tradition, not medicine. The honey part has some evidence for a cough from a cold. The rest is just a lovely dessert with 5 grams of fiber.

1 g

protein

5.5 g

fiber

90 calories

0 mg

sodium

Per serving. Calculated from USDA FoodData Central (E52); method and every ingredient value at the back of the book.

You need

- 1 large Asian pear, halved and cored
- 4 dried jujubes, sliced
- 3 thin slices fresh ginger
- 1 tsp (optional) honey

Steps

1. Put the pear halves cut-side up in a heatproof bowl. Tuck jujube slices and ginger into the hollows. Drizzle honey if using.
2. Steam, covered, over simmering water 25 to 30 minutes, until soft.
3. Eat warm with the juices, with a spoon.

Soft-food version: Already soft. Remove the ginger slices.

Keeps: Fridge 2 days.

Who should skip or ask first: Honey: never for babies under 1.
Diabetes: honey counts as sugar (or leave it out).

Persimmon, walnut and yogurt cup

Sun's autumn snack · Serves 1 · 3 minutes hands-on, 3 minutes total

Sun Yoon

In October our tree drops more persimmons than two people can eat. So you get this. Out of season, use a ripe pear.

14 g

- 1/2 cup plain nonfat Greek yogurt
- 1 Tbsp chopped walnuts
- pinch cinnamon

Steps

1. Spoon the yogurt into a cup.
2. Top with persimmon, walnuts and cinnamon.

Soft-food version: Use a very ripe persimmon, peeled; grind the walnuts.

Keeps: Assemble fresh.

Who should skip or ask first: High fiber. Go up slowly and drink water, or you'll feel it (E24).

Cucumber and seaweed salad

oi-miyeok-muchim (Korean) · Serves 4 · 10 minutes hands-on, 20 minutes total

Sun Yoon

Cold, sour, crunchy. Good next to anything fried. Seaweed: small portions, and ask your doctor if you have a thyroid condition.

1 g

protein

0.8 g

fiber

30 calories

350 mg

sodium

Per serving. Calculated from USDA FoodData Central (E52); method and every ingredient value at the back of the book.

You need

- 1/4 oz dry (about 1/2 cup soaked) dried wakame (calculated as 70 g soaked)
- 2 medium cucumbers, thinly sliced
- 2 Tbsp rice or white vinegar
- 1 tsp sugar
- 1 tsp low-sodium soy sauce
- 1 tsp toasted sesame seeds
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1/2 tsp Korean chili flakes (optional)

Steps

1. Soak the wakame in cold water 10 minutes. Drain, squeeze, and chop.

2. Toss the cucumber with the salt; wait 10 minutes; squeeze out the water.
3. Mix vinegar, sugar and soy sauce. Toss with cucumber and seaweed. Top with sesame seeds and chili.

Soft-food version: Peel and seed the cucumber; chop the seaweed finely.

Keeps: Fridge 2 days.

Who should skip or ask first: Thyroid condition? Seaweed can be very high in iodine (E58). Ask your doctor how much is okay for you.

Soybean sprout soup with tofu and egg kongnamul-guk (Korean) · Serves 4 · 10 minutes hands-on, 25 minutes total

Sun Yoon

Clean, light, crunchy sprouts. Koreans eat it the morning after a big night. I eat it the morning after a big K-drama night. Same thing.

19 g

protein

1.2 g

180

calories

410 mg

sodium

Per serving. Calculated from USDA FoodData Central (E52); method and every ingredient value at the back of the book.

You need

- 12 oz soybean sprouts (cooked in the soup)
- 1/2 block (7 oz) soft tofu, cubed
- 2 large eggs, beaten
- 3 garlic cloves, minced
- 2 scallions, sliced
- 4 cups low-sodium chicken broth
- 2 cups water
- 1 Tbsp low-sodium soy sauce
- 1/4 tsp salt
- 1 tsp Korean chili flakes (optional)

Steps

1. Put the sprouts, garlic, broth and water in a pot. Cover and boil 8 minutes without lifting the lid (the sprouts stay crunchy and lose their raw smell).
2. Add tofu, soy sauce and salt. Simmer 2 minutes.
3. Drizzle in the eggs while stirring. Simmer 1 minute so the egg is fully cooked. Scallions and chili on top.

Soft-food version: Chop the sprouts after cooking.

Keeps: Fridge 3 days.

0:30–1:30 • Why this week

Time	Who	Spoken	On screen
0:30	Sun	In the Prune Study, postmenopausal women eating about 50 grams of prunes a day kept their hip bone density steady for a year compared with controls. And prunes help regularity (E25).	Rung 4: prunes + flax
0:57	Sun	Go up slowly and drink water, or you'll feel it.

1:30–4:00 • Cook with me: Sweet potato porridge with walnuts

Time	Who	Spoken	On screen
1:30	Sun	Orange, sweet, soft, warm. Made with soy milk so it has protein, and eggs on the side so it has more. Breakfast, not dessert.	Sweet potato porridge with walnuts
1:53	Sun	Simmer the sweet potato and rice in the water, covered, 15 minutes, until soft.
2:13	Sun	Add the soy milk. Simmer 10 more minutes, stirring often so it doesn't stick.
2:33	Sun	Mash or blend until smooth. Add the salt.

How we calculated the recipe numbers

Source. Every ingredient is matched to a food in the USDA FoodData Central SR Legacy database (April 2018 release, downloaded from fdc.nal.usda.gov, E52). We took energy (kcal), protein, total dietary fiber and sodium per 100 grams, multiplied by the grams used, added up the recipe and divided by the number of servings.

Two pastes aren't in the USDA database: gochujang and chunjang. For those we used the manufacturer label values recorded on Open Food Facts (Sempio gochujang, Obok chunjang, E53). The chunjang label's protein (20 g per 100 g) looks high for a bean paste, so treat the protein in Chang's black bean noodles as a slight overestimate (the paste adds about 3.6 g per serving).

Rules we followed.

- Meat, fish and tofu are weighed raw, matched to raw USDA values. Rice and pasta are weighed cooked, matched to cooked values (1 cup cooked brown rice = 195 g; 1 cup cooked whole-wheat pasta = 140 g).
- Salt, soy sauce and pastes are counted in full at the amounts listed. "Pinch" and "to taste" items, and water, count as zero.
- Dried wakame is calculated as its soaked weight (1/2 oz dry $\approx$ 140 g soaked) using USDA raw wakame.
- Where USDA reports no value for a nutrient (fiber in raw shrimp and short-grain white rice), we counted zero. Shrimp has essentially no fiber; white rice has a little, so those fiber numbers are slightly low.
- Soy-braised eggs: all the soy sauce is counted even though most stays in the pot, so sodium is overstated.

- Brand, ripeness and exact size change real numbers. Treat these as good estimates, within about 10%.

Numbers are rounded: protein to the nearest gram, fiber to 0.1 g, calories and sodium to the nearest 10.

Where the numbers come from Every number and health statement in this book traces to one of the entries below. They are the same evidence IDs our whole team uses (EVIDENCE.md). Grade A means a Cochrane review, a large meta-analysis or a guideline body. B means a single good trial or a small meta-analysis. C means an observational study: it shows a link, not cause and effect. D means lab, physiology or label data.

E23 (grade A– (meta)). Light walking after meals (even 2–5 minutes) lowers the post-meal glucose rise compared with sitting.

Source: Buffey et al., Sports Med 2022 — <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/35147898/>

E24 (grade A (meta of cohorts + RCTs)). Fiber: 25–29 g/day was linked with 15–30% lower all-cause and CV mortality, type 2 diabetes and colorectal cancer. More fiber was linked with more benefit.

Source: Reynolds et al., Lancet 2019 — https://www.thelancet.com/journals/lancet/article/PIIS0140-6736\(18\)31809-9/fulltext31809-9/fulltext)

E25 (grade B (exploratory)). Chronic constipation: 2 green kiwifruit/day vs 100 g prunes vs 12 g psyllium, 4 weeks, 75 patients. All three improved bowel movements similarly. Kiwi had the fewest side effects and highest satisfaction, and improved bloating.

Source: Chey et al., Am J Gastroenterol 2021 — <https://www.healio.com/news/gastroenterology/20210608/kiwi-fruit-effectively-relieves-symptoms-in-chronic-constipation>

E26 (grade B (small)). 36 adults, 10 weeks. A high-fermented-food diet (yogurt, kefir, kimchi, sauerkraut, kombucha; intake rose to about 6 servings/day by the end) increased microbiome diversity and lowered 19 inflammatory proteins (including IL-6). The high-fiber arm didn't show those changes over 10 weeks.

Source: Wastyk et al., Cell 2021 — <https://med.stanford.edu/news/all-news/2021/07/fermented-food-diet-increases-microbiome-diversity-lowers-inflammation.html>

E27 (grade B). Prune Study: postmenopausal women eating 50 g prunes/day (about 5–6) preserved total hip BMD over 12 months vs controls.

Source: De Souza et al., Am J Clin Nutr 2022 — <https://pmc.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/articles/PMC9193411/>

E28 (grade A (consensus)). PROT-AGE: adults over 65 should get 1.0–1.2 g protein/kg/day, and 1.2–1.5 g/kg if active or ill (unless there is severe kidney disease). Aim for 25–30 g per meal with about 2.5–2.8 g leucine.

Source: Bauer et al., JAMDA 2013 — <https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/23867520/>

E32 (grade A–). Honey improved upper-respiratory-infection symptoms, especially cough frequency and severity, compared with usual care. Never give honey to infants under 12 months.

Source: Abuelgasim et al., BMJ Evid Based Med 2021 — <https://www.phc.ox.ac.uk/news/honey-better-than-usual-care-for-easing-respiratory-symptoms-especially-cough>

E33 (grade A–). Ginger for osteoarthritis pain: small effect vs placebo, with more GI complaints. Say it "may help a little". Ginger for nausea has reasonable support. It can interact with blood thinners at supplement doses.

E35 (grade B+). Salt substitute (25% potassium chloride) in 20,995 older adults at high risk: stroke, major CV events and death were all reduced. Caution: potassium salt isn't for people with kidney disease or on potassium-raising medicines. Always say "ask your doctor first".
